Care, Connect, Create

Scharrell Jackson is the founder of "Leadership in Heels" Women Speaker Series which brings women together in an environment where they can have authentic conversations about matters of the heart that directly impacts every area of a woman's life. She is focused on creating a brand for women that represents the authentic leader with a mission to motivate, inspire, educate, equip women to see themselves as leaders and pivot their lives forward, personally, professionally, and in their community.

Scharrell is a highly sought-after dynamic and engaging speaker. Many have benefited from her message on a variety of topics such as "Now That I'm All Grown Up, The Responsibilities of a Leader," "The Brand New You, What's Behind the Makeup," and "Leadership in Heels" to name a few. She enjoys inspiring girls and women to live the life they desire by providing tangible tips to rise to one's highest potential. Her passion is mentoring women to obtain upward mobility and confidence, as well as, reaching underprivileged youth. Scharrell sits on the boards of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County, Girls Inc., and Human Options. She is an active member of Saddleback Church and hosts a weekly bible study for women in her home and at work.

Scharrell Jackson has served as an executive in the field of Finance/Accounting and Operations for over 20 years, working in industries such as Professional Services, Real Estate, Construction and Manufacturing, in positions such as Controller, VP of Finance and Chief Financial Officer.

Scharrell currently serves as the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer of Squar Milner, one of the nation's 100 largest accounting firms, and one of California's leading independent advisory firms. She joined Squar Milner in February of 2000, and has played an integral role in the firm's growth and success, executing multiple mergers that has expanded the firm's footprint and increase revenues.
